

Dear Friend:

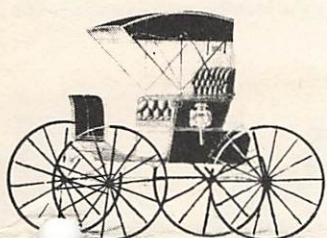

We have received a great many requests for particulars and prices on Carts and Carriages. Due to the fact that we have so many in stock it would be impossible for us to write in detail about all of them. In this catalog we show approximately 50 different style Used Buggies. Each of these has been completely gone over, rebuilt and reconditioned.

On the inside of this catalog we have set up a convenient request blank. Check the style or styles you would prefer, mail the blank to us and we will be glad to give you full particulars.

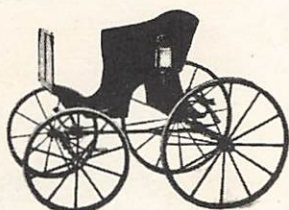

Sincerely,

KAUFFMAN SADDLERY COMPANY.

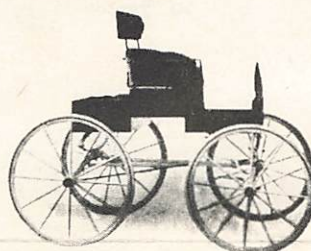

P.S.—We also have a complete line of harness      Check the Harness box in the Request Blank for details.

OR THE benefit of the gasolineless motorist who may be thinking of putting the little old car in storage and getting a horse and a buggy, the following rules of etiquette are unearthed from
many years ago:

BREAK-IN CART

Reprinted from
The
NEW YORK TIMES
(July 24th Magazine)

"A gentleman, upon calling to take a lady a ride, will never compel her to climb into the buggy unassisted, but will courteously descend to ground with reins in hand and, gently clasping
her elbow, help her to enter the vehicle, stepping himself only after she has comfortably seated herself.

"Ladies when driving will invariably dispose of their laprobe in such manner that their extremities
be well covered from sight of passers-by.

"To ride with one or both of the feet hanging down, as is the custom of many young men of fashionable lineage, is the height of vulgarity, even in the sterner sex.

"On passing a lady acquaintance in the street
while driving, a gentleman should intrust the reins to his left hand (and the whip also, if in use), thus leaving the right hand free to lift the hat. To lift the hat with the hand which holds the whip is to be said?"
